

I believe that the NO CALL List provisions as they are written provide necessary protection to consumers who wish not to be disturbed by unwanted telephone calls. If one special interest group is allowed relief, it will become a steady flow of requests until the protection is eliminated. Please reject the CBA request.